ABOUT TOWN

- 6. Friends of Aine — a nonprofit organization providing bereavement support services to grieving children, teens and families — opened its new location at 226 Coolidge Avenue in Manchester last month with an open house. The ribbon-cutting ceremony was attended by Manchester Mayor Joyce Craig, NH State Senator Lou D’Allesandro, the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce and others, who toured the organization’s four age-specific grief support spaces for children and teenagers, ages 4 to 18.
